Attorney Long moved that the defendant be at liberty on pretrial release with conditions and with a third-party custodian. Government argued against the release due to him being a danger to the community and stated that they were ready to go forward with presenting evidence to the Court if the Court was inclined to set release conditions for the defendant.

Court, after hearing all argument, DENIED the defendant's pretrial release motion. Court remanded the defendant back into the custody of the U.S. Marshal.

Attorney Long continued to argue on behalf of the defendant. Court stated that his decision was final.
